days ago when I received the the information regarding the new Med beds I received a little bit more information which I did post to my social media channels and groups and things which was the alliances asked me to not answer any more questions um they said it is so that people can find the information themselves and get some you know skills researching skills and you know kind of force people into looking for the information instead of having it anded to them however I feel that that's not entirely accurate there is something else going on so hat they've asked me to do is give information only at their request not answer any questions by private message or or in the groups or search any kind of social media I can for the time being still do private sessions but only mediumship and your own spiritual self-development everything about projects about Med beds about everything else is an absolute No-No and if you run my live stream yesterday about worship and the 5D new Earth you'll notice that once I started answering questions the live stream was cut off okay they the alliance has said that hey had they did this they didn't want any any questions answered um they waited till all the information was given and then they stopped it and then we started we tried to start again and they allowed it to continue the second uh the second time because all the questions were just basically Med beds and and stuff which is completely out there I've talked about it a million times okay so I don't know what they're planning they've never done this before but I did notice this morning that Phil G has been asked to not do his live stream tonight no explanation was giving given he asked if he could do a short q a and the answer was point blank no so um I know something's going on and then Kimberly Tesla shared a message this morning about um all the the alliance and and Trump channels disappearing in a whole group of people leaving and and all of this something is about to hit the fan I don't know what it is um but yeah please don't send me messages I'm not being rude I'm not being disrespectful if I don't answer your message your question please don't hold it against me um I answered a couple this morning and yeah I had a very strong visit with some very strong words um do not answer any questions that's it that's literally it and they even said that sometime in the the next car yeah start again sometimes within some time within the coming week to two weeks they'll stop my private sessions all together I hope something happens before then because of private sessions is How I Live so um that's how I keep a roof over my head so I hope and pray something happens but yeah if Kimberly Tesla shared that and then Phil G he had his he's live canceled from his contacts I've been silenced except you know when they give me information to deliver so um I noticed this morning even Wolverine sounded like he was saying a goodbye message so something is definitely up and I'll say it now because I may not get another chance I want to thank each and every one of you for for joining me on this journey and you've all been such a blessing um through the the laughter the happiness the tears the the sadness the temper tantrums all of the above um but no matter what kind of relationship we've had you've been an absolute blessing and I thank you all for that um it's all taught me a lot it's taught me so much and I'm so honored to be part of your part of your life so thank you and yet just in case this is the last one okay so um so yeah shit's about to get real so I've never been asked to not answer questions I've been asked many times to back off and direct people to where they can find their answers which we have done but never to that's it no more answering questions um so there'll be no more classes no more workshops unless they change unless something happens and and they change I have no idea why they've requested this but seems to be a few people have given out information today that they're being silenced or something like that so so yes thank you everybody and um enjoy your day okay thanks bye
