

Good morning everyone how are we afternoon evening night wherever you are okay, so for those of you who don't know and you'd have to be living under a rock at the moment if you don't know um a few days ago I walked away from the alliance in the galactics this is because of something they said and they did and basically threw me to the wolves in support of people's comfort in in their beliefs okay whatever okay um we're all users upon for other people's purposes at some point whatever but I haven't left you guys okay just because I'm not talking to the alliance any longer or the galactics it doesn't mean I'm leaving you guys it just means I'm not going to be delivering any new new med bed information or Healing Center information it's just I won't be getting anything new because I'm not communicating with them maybe that will change but I highly doubt it okay at this point it won't change in but you know nothing is forever so who knows what's to come in the future now I want to talk about something that is important I want to talk about spiritual bypassing okay now in many of the groups and and things since this incident happened a week ago or whatever it is a few days have lost time um lost track of time a lot of the groups are saying you keep your Vibe High you know just get over it get get on with your life and and keep your vibrations higher okay now what we have to understand with your vibrational frequency is it will only truly truly raise when you deal with your triggers okay when you deal with your triggers your vibration will raise okay by just ignoring and staying away from anything negative that may trigger you you're actually doing yourself a disservice and you're keeping your frequency where it is pardon me okay so you actually need to face what triggers you what upsets you what challenges you you need to face that and you need to figure out why that's triggering you so much you need to understand it so that you can deal with it heal it and only then once you've dealt with it and heal it will your frequency truly raise now I'm not talking about just going out in the garden and grounding and spending time in nature I'm talking about truly raising your frequency that affects your Consciousness that affects every part of your life okay that is long lasting not just a temporary Band-Aid to the problem okay we're looking for Solutions we're not

3:08 looking for Band-Aids to cover something up because we're uncomfortable we're looking for something that is truly lasting that will have a an impact a positive impact on your life for the rest of your life okay not just slapping a Band-Aid on it so that you can get on with your happy happy life okay we're talking about facing it going into the depths of the darkness of yourself and really looking at what it is that is triggering us about our life about ourselves about what someone said about someone's actions okay if you're withholding that from a group because you want to remain high Vibe you're actually doing a tremendous disservice to the members of those groups okay this whole experience has been really highlighting where people are consciously where people's triggers are and as much as I hate to admit it my deception has opened up a doorway for everyone else to go into their Darkness to deal with it so basically I opened up your gates to the hell to Hell your gates To Hell however you want to put it okay so you really need to step through that gate into hell to look at what's there so you can deal with it and understand it heal it and then move on okay now this is so important if you want to truly truly go forward into the 5D new Earth truly into 5D new Earth not just because it's all nice and abundant and you have technology and it's beautiful and everyone's friendly for everyone to be truly friendly you have to go through your Darkness you literally have to go through your Darkness to get to that true friendly stage okay which a lot of people are not wanting to do why because it's painful why because it's challenging why because it means they actually have to face what they don't want to they have to face the truth about themselves the truth about what's in themselves or within themselves that's scary that's hard that's scary but if you choose not to do it then you remain Where You Are it is that simple

no one's telling you that you have to do it it's a choice if you want to elevate then you have to go into the darkness my experience opened that doorway all you have to do is choose to step through it but by withholding anything dark from the groups or from yourself you're keeping yourself exactly where you are you're allowing other people's experiences words to control you that is not stepping into your true light that is bypassing what is necessary to achieve Oneness what is necessary to move on from where you are that is necessary to move forward into a higher Consciousness Society which is where we're headed so it is a choice it is a choice and that's a choice that you have to make no no matter how uncomfortable you are it's a choice no one's going to make it for you no one's responsible for how you feel no one's responsible for giving you Hope and Faith no one's responsible for your triggers that's you that's you you're responsible for how you feel I do enjoy triggering people I'm going to admit it I'm a saddest I do enjoy triggering people why do I enjoy it am I a no of course not some people seem see me way worse but I don't care I enjoy triggering people because I know that by bringing up those triggers there is part of them that if they choose to do something about it they're going to blossom into the most beautiful beautiful evolved flower I know silly analogy it's the best thing I could think of in the moment do I trigger them to be nasty no I'm not like that many people say I am I'm not I trigger you because I want you to grow which means facing your triggers I want you to be the best version version you can be and you can't be that if you look away from the unhealed parts of you so this whole situation while it's hurtful foreign it's necessary because it has opened a doorway for you each and every one of you to look within yourselves and to stand in your light to stand in your power not allow somebody else to take control of you it's perfect that's a brilliant plan by dividing and tearing apart the humanitarian community it's only brought everyone in alignment with themselves and what's really

Important brilliant plan are they casualties yeah but you're not one of them you're not a casualty you're an opportunist and I mean that in a respectful polite way an opportunist as in the opportunity has arisen now it's your choice whether you take it or not brilliant this whole thing is designed to elevate you to renew a higher level that you've never been before that you've never been willing to go before but now you're being forced to go there so if you haven't done the work before then you're being forced to do it now if you have done the work before then this is nothing but a distraction not to be taken any notice of brilliant plan brilliant plan doesn't mean it doesn't hurt in the process brilliant plan though you got to take your hat off to them face your face your because if you choose not to face your now and you go to that RV appointment which reads your frequency by the way how much money do you think you're going to get with hatred in your heart not much when you go to the conference to have to get approval to have Med beds in your project and you've got hatred and judgment in your heart do you think you're going to be approved to be in charge of higher Consciousness technology no you're not it's that simple it's that simple my last video I said sit for an hour in front of a mirror mirror and look deal with what you see in front of you have you done that yet are you brave enough to do that do you want to go down that rabbit hole down that that deep deep dark place because that's where you need to go in order to move forward that's what needs to happen are you brave enough do you have enough courage to face the truth within yourself this is all about raising your Consciousness not spiritual it's nothing to do with being spiritual you know burning candles and burning sage and meditating nothing to do with that this is consciousness Consciousness is raw truth nothing sugar coated it's not love and light it's not fairy rainbows and pink unicorns that's not what Consciousness is their spirituality this is looking at the deepest darkest parts of you dealing with and healing that so you can expand so you can go into this amazing environment where you're all equal the ant that just passed you carrying a crumb on its back is just as equal as you where the grass you cut the flower you cut the building you're sitting in is just as alive and just as equal in the eyes of God source as what you are everything in creation matters just as much as what you do when was the last time you went outside and looked at a tree and really looked and then felt it knowing that that tree is just as live and conscious As You Are trying to survive having an experience

Life Is Magic it is beautiful it is creation life is God itself existence is God itself how can it not be magic the trees that lose their leaves during winter they go through their Dark Night of the Soul but they know that when spring comes they will Bloom and Blossom more beautiful than ever before they got to that point by going through the darkness they didn't bypass that Darkness they had to face it to become the beautiful blossoming tree don't bypass the negativity because it's uncomfortable face it work with it deal with it heal it and then use it for your blossoming time your time to Blossom whichever way you want to put it use the darkness like an arrow being pulled back on a bow use it to slingshot you forward into greatness don't shy away from it it's not there to harm you it's not there to hurt you is there to help you transform into the most beautiful butterfly ever it's not there to bring you down no one's there to bring you down everyone's there to elevate you including this Saga okay it's only there to elevate you now on a different note this circus started because someone twisted my words and did not either did not understand or chose to twist my words not once have I said you need to renounce Jesus or drop your worship beliefs to be treated in a med bed not once have I said that why because it's not true to work with the med beds meaning to work with patients to be a med bed operator to work in a med bed Center pardon me you cannot worship anything outside of yourself okay make sure you listen and get it right if it wasn't for the manipulation of words we would not be going through this ridiculous drama okay so make sure you listen and get it right to be treated in a med bed it does not matter what your beliefs are or if you worship or what right there start again what vibrational frequency you are makes no difference nobody cares okay however if you want to work with the beds in a center yes it does matter your vibrational frequency and it does matter if you worship something outside of yourself because the med beds have a higher level of consciousness they say that again the med beds work with a higher level of consciousness and worshipping anything outside of

yourself meaning kissing the ground someone walks on or not doing anything because they may not approve meaning not standing in your own light living in the shadow of another that you would kiss the ground they walk on it is that kind of belief system is not compatible with the consciousness of the med beds it is that simple this is not a ploy to get rid of religion this is not me pushing forward my beliefs nothing like that this is just pure fact and how it is the med beds work with a higher level of consciousness and worshipping meaning kissing the ground someone walks on and not standing in your own light you are not compatible to work with them it is that simple okay that simple now when we do get to work with the med beds the spiritual counselor training will also be incorporated into the med bed training course the alliance is doing that med bed that spiritual Council are training I have nothing to do with it anymore okay I never did all right I never really did I was just taking pardon me I was just taking the emails so that they can send out the official registration forms that's it okay I'm not doing doing it all right just the emails that's it please don't send any more emails by the way the alliance will deal with I'll handle those emails over to the spiritual counselor training team okay after the Redemption appointments or whenever they want it okay and they will they will get back to everyone they'll deal with it all right um but when we do get to work with the med beds this training will be um this higher Consciousness training will be incorporated into your med bed training and if you are not ready to work with the med beds on a conscious level then you will continue the training until you are okay now how soon that is is totally up to you okay completely up to you but please don't think that I'm pushing anything here I'm not I'm just giving you fact just fact okay and if you don't believe me then you are going to find out and you will find out the hard way because you'll get to the training and they'll say okay you're not ready oh you're not ready you're not ready you're not ready blah blah blah okay really really simple stuff really simple alrighty and those who want Med beds in their projects are not going to be approved if you are not consciously compatible with the conscious the level of consciousness of the med beds that the med bed work with if you know what I mean okay so it's just it's just fact okay now if the questions had been asked correctly for the truth instead of being manipulated for the answer that that they wanted then this would have come out to light and there'd be no problem and all it would be going along their daily business so pardon me just know that everyone's going to find this out to be true what I'm saying because it is fact it's not some fairy story created because someone has something against religion I don't care what your beliefs are your beliefs are your choice all I care is that you be the best person that you can be and you can Elevate yourself as best as you possibly can to get what you're to manifest your dreams and get what you want in life so that's it all right now can we please everyone in the groups in particular stop your bitching because you're bitching remember the Redemption appointments read your frequency and bitching is low vibration which means that you will get the lower rate right so if you're bitching then you've got a problem okay remember sit in front of that mirror for an hour that's where your bitching needs to be directed to because that's where the healing needs if you're bitching about me if you're bitching about someone else if you're bitching about the whole process if whatever it's all about you it is nothing about

anyone else it's always been about you never about anyone else words and actions are just the triggers for you to look at what's within you never about anyone else and this opportunity has come about so you get to look at what your triggers are and deal with it getting to the RV appointment and then being turned well not turned away getting the lower rate is your responsibility that no one's done that you know no one's done that to you it's not well Sky Prince made me do this no I didn't no I didn't I just triggered what's within you so you can deal with it and you chose to walk away from it your responsibility your choice so just one last thing to the groups that is withholding my videos which I find hilarious because it might bring the vibe down um just know that you're doing a very disservice to to your group members by only only keeping the Vibes High The Vibes get low for a reason and that reason needs to be dealt with not kept out not run away from if you're running away from it or keeping it out because you feel it's your responsibility to keep the Vibes high or look after your group then you're not helping your group members you're actually inhibiting them you're stopping them from growing people need to talk people need to get things off their chest by withholding that opportunity you're keeping them exactly where they are you're not helping at all you're inhibiting them and that's anyone any negative video anything I saw one this morning on Facebook where little baby chickens were being slaughtered it just passed me by and I'm like holy crap I did not want to see that and I scrolled on by and then I went back and I watched it because I have to face my triggers I have to deal with what I don't like everybody has to deal with what they don't like no good turning your back on it because it's only going to come back later to bite you in the ass and what we're doing moving forward is too important for that to come back and bite you in the ass you need to do it now because later is too late you want to create the rest of your life from now and you're turning your back on everything that you need to be doing now and just focusing on the light when there's so much Darkness you've got to heal that Darkness to get to the lights don't be so stupid and bypass it because that Darkness isn't going anywhere until you deal with it so you know even after the RV and you have all your money and you're going off and doing your projects that Darkness sooner or later is going to catch up with you and that's when you don't want it to catch up with you because that's when it's really going to be dark okay money doesn't buy happiness right you have to deal with the darkness now not later not later so stop shying away from what's uncomfortable stop pretending oh shoot a prick spider crawling on my arm excuse my language bloody hell I must be like Queen of the arachnids um so you know deal with it deal with it okay group owners don't just keep the rooms love and light because that's fake that's not going to help you grow that's not true High vibration you've got to go through the darkness to get to the light so stop pretending everything is love and light because it's not you only get to real love and light by going through the darkness all right I wish everyone a beautiful day and I'm still here I'm not done doing videos I'm not done helping people I'm just done with the alliance and the galactics all right so um all the comments I thought you were done why don't you just stay done oh it'd be better if you were completely done and not show your ugly headed oh my God whatever at least you're good for entertainment if nothing else okay deal with the and heal it all right then you move on you don't move on by running away and pretending everything's love and light that's ludicrous all right take care everyone bye
